Fashions in Jewelry.

Pearls are in greater demand than ever and are largely used for necklaces.
 All kinds of fancy colored stones are worn, including caruncles, peridots, amethysts, topazes, turquoises and above all sapphires.

Birthday watches claim attention.
 These have dials enameled with the flower of the month or set with the natal stone.

Opals remain fashionable and certainly lend themselves well to the lap-idary's art.

Flowers and scrolls represented in brilliants are arranged as a pendant, which is also adapted for wearing in the hair or as a brooch.

The peculiar greens and blues that prevail in dress fabrics are shown in enamels on gold and silver.

A Pious King.

Edward, the Saxon king of England, was designated the Confessor on account of his personal piety. After his death he was canonized, and his shrine in Westminster abbey is still an object of reverence. Once a year, on the feast day of this saint, the cardinal and Roman Catholic prelates and clergy of England are permitted to enter Westminster abbey in procession and before the shrine of St. Edward to hold a service of silent prayer.

Told In Confidence.

Burr—What do you think of the story about Jonah being three days inside of the whale?

Kerr—It's a good thing. I've given my wife worse excuses than that.—Up to Date.

On a Large Scale.

He—Don't you think I'm improving in my waiting?
 She—Oh, yes! I think you've been making vast strides.—Exchange.

How to Make a Hanging Basket.

To make a hanging basket of unusual gorgeousness soak some nasturtium seeds in warm water for a day or two. Then fill a bowl, in the bottom of which some little holes have been bored, with rich earth. Plant the seeds, stop up the holes with pencil points and hang in a warm cellar for a week. At the end of that time hang your bowl in the open air, remove the bits of pencil and you will have a unique bit of window ornamentation.

King Bros. have just filled an order for 200 colored Hawaiian window which has attracted so much attention is not the portrait of anyone here.

Of the Secretary Disc Plow one of the most successful plantation managers writes the Pacific Har-ware Co.: "I have delayed writing you about the work of the Secretary Disc Plow, until I satisfied myself in regard to its proper working. * * * I am busy plowing a field with it now, and it is doing fine work, and I hope for good results from the thorough plowing it is receiving."

 "Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth."
